As soon as you are able Woman I am willing
To make the break, that we
Are on the brink, of
My cup is on the table
Our love is spilling
Waiting here for you to Take and drink, of

So if you're tired of the
Same old story
Turn some pages
I'll be here when you are ready
To roll with the changes

I knew it had to happen
Felt the tables turnin'
Got me through my darkest hour
I heard the thunder
clappin'
Felt the desert burnin'
Until you poured on me
Like a sweet sunshower

So if you're tired of the
Same old story
Turn some pages
I'll be here when you are ready
To roll with the changes

Graduation Day, that day when all Lycoming College Seniors look forward to walking through the Oliver Sterling Metzler Gates.

A very popular event at Lycoming is the Dance Show. The show showcases many students performing a variety of dance styles. Above, Gary Moyer leads an energetic country line dance.

Warrior Quarterback Glen Smith calls his own number in the huddle and takes off running hard towards the end zone.

Lycoming College would like to thank the recipients of this book for their patience while a group of administrators and staff worked in their spare time for almost two years to finalize the gathering of content and the completion of all the layout and design work for this book. Special thanks goes out to: Dave Brown of Herff-Jones, Laura Johnson, Andrew Kilpatrick, Larry Mannolini, Dan Miller, Donna Weaver, and Jean Wool.

2006-ARROW

The 2006 edition of "The Arrow" has a meaningful theme: "Roll with the Changes." From newly-graduated high school kids to hard-working college students, and from graduating seniors to job-seekers, the members of the Class of 2006 are learning to put their degrees and experiences into action. And through it all, they have discovered one of life's biggest challenges: to "Roll with the Changes."

A Look Back at Lycoming College Buildings

Pictured above is an entrance to Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Hall which was dedicated November 1, 1947. The Memorial Hall was purchased as a temporary classroom from the Susquehanna Ordnance Depot, Montgomery, PA, where it was originally utilized by the government as an office building. The Hall was dedicated to the College's twenty-one known war dead and to the more than 400 alumni who served in the armed forces during the Second World War. The building was torn down in October 1968.

Bradley Hall served as an art and music conservatory when originally built in 1895. It also housed the library, classrooms, faculty offices, and connected to Old Mail by an overhead walkway. The Mary Lindsay Welch Honors Hall houses two medallions from Bradley Hall that were saved after the building was razed in 1980.

Wesley Hall was constructed in 1956. In the background are some Williamsport properties, some of which still stand today.

This is the Fine Arts building during the 1950s, when it served as a gym. It was renovated in 1983 and now houses lecture halls, studios, and a wood-working shop.

Two residents of Crever Hall in the 1950s are enjoying a quiet moment in their room.

Eveland Hall before demolition in the mid-1970s. It housed ministerial students and was affectionately named "Angel Factory."

The Lyco Cafeteria with a tropical theme until remodeling began in the early 1980s.

Campus Carnival

The Lyco Campus Carnival was held in September. Some of the activities sponsored by College organizations included a blow-up basketball game, a blow-up obstacle course, wax hand imprints, and mini-golf. The fun menu included pizza, barbecue chicken, and cotton candy.

Gamma Delta Sigma sponsored the blow-up basketball game in which students were tethered on opposite sides of a pole as they attempted to pull themselves across the court to make as many baskets as they could. You can imagine the laughs as students crashed into the pole!

Danice Gregorowicz made a wax sculpture of her hand at a booth at the campus carnival that provided students with a great escape from the confines of their rooms on a warm sunny day.

Erin Peterson, the RA for the second floor of Skeath, got pied at the "Pie an RA" booth.

Tau Kappa Epsilon sponsored a blow-up obstacle course so students could race their friends. The last obstacle was a climb to the top of a large slide and the first person to reach the bottom was proclaimed supreme champion.

Family Weekend

Over one thousand students, siblings, and parents were on campus for Family Weekend. It was an event that allows students to share campus life and the Williamsport area with their families. Family members were welcomed into classrooms, the dining hall, and were invited to attend sporting events like the Lycoming Warrior Classic Volleyball Tournament.

The weekend started with an art exhibition held in Snowden Library Art Gallery, a volleyball tournament, and a choir concert held in Clarke Chapel. On Saturday, the Gamma Delta Sigma sorority held their 15th Annual Brandy Lee Sudol Memorial Auction. All proceeds from the auction were given to a worthy student as a scholarship.

Homecoming 2006

This past Homecoming took place on the weekend of October 8th-9th. Choosing a Homecoming Court is always one of the most anticipated events during the week of Homecoming. This year was no exception. There were many nominations for King, Queen, Prince and Princess, but in the end only four lucky candidates could win the titles. At the Pep Rally held Thursday during the week of Homecoming, Erin Peterson and Shaun Higgins were crowned Princess and Prince. Then at the main event, the football game, Stamatis Zeris and Amy Leso were chosen King and Queen. In the above pictures, you can see the candidates dressed in their best, bearing the elements at the football game, and supporting the Prince and Princess candidates at the Pep Rally.

Homecoming Activities

Every year, Warriors from near and far, current students and alumni, anxiously await Homecoming events. Homecoming Weekend took place on October 8th and 9th. Throughout the week leading up to the weekend, some of the students' favorite activities included volleyball, Hall Crawl, and other pep rally events. At the Hall Crawl, many students put their musical talents on display, while organizations and clubs sold delicious homemade snacks.

On the first night of Homecoming activities, students have fun competing in a campus wide volleyball tournament.

Senior Josie Castillo sings and plays to the delight of the crowd. Students and staff look forward to these performances every year. All the practice and preparation pay off!

Despite the rainy and cold weather, students are ready to start the parade. To the left, Junior Hadiyah Abdullah gets confirmation to start going.

The cross country team demonstrates their school spirit by dressing up in their running attire in Warrior blue and yellow colors. Other students joined in to cheer! Everyone looks excited as the pep rally begins!

Fall

From formal gowns to blue jeans, the 2005 Fall Formal was fun for everyone! This semi-formal, sponsored by the Campus Activities Board, was held on Friday, November 11 at the Genetti Hotel. The DJ for the evening was Dan Coran, who enjoyed himself as much as the students. CAB estimated that more than 250 students attended.

In Support of Hurricane Katrina

Throughout 2005 – 2006, Lycoming students demonstrated that they care about what was going on outside of our small community. To show this, they organized events and fundraisers to help the victims devastated by Hurricane Katrina. Events included: a candlelight prayer vigil on the Quad, a Dance Club Benefit Show, a WRLC-sponsored Dance-a-Thon that raised nearly $500, a Black Tie

Affair relief performance that raised $1000, and a school-supply drive for grade schools affected by the disaster. Many students spent a great deal of time and effort working to make others' lives better. These events not only helped victims, but also built up the College community. Students got to know each other better during these benefits, as they truly came together as a family. And, they had a good time!

313 Bestows Laughter Upon Lycoming College

The Comedy Group 313 came to Lycoming College on October 26th and 27th. This improv group originated in Chicago but currently lives in Los Angeles. This group of six individuals makes up stories right on the scene and uses things around them and even each other to make the jokes come to life. The group is led by Larry Joe Campbell. Larry stars on the ABC television show "According to Jim" as Jim's whacky brother-in-law Andy. Larry came to Lycoming College after Dr. N.J. Stanley from the theatre department made the request. Larry and Dr. Stanley have kept in contact over the years after she directed him in the drama "Angel Street" at Central Michigan University where he was a student. When she invited him, Stanley had no idea that Campbell would be inviting his friends to tag along. The other performers were Nyima Funk, her husband Josh Funk, Andy Cobb, and Marc Evan Jackson. Nyima and Josh both currently work on the MTV show "Nick Cannon's Wild 'N Out". Nyima is a performer while Josh is a writer for the show. While they were on campus, the performers held improv workshops for the students to attend and they even casted them in a segment in the show. Senior Kelly Sykes was put in the spot light when the comedians acted on a typical day in the life of Kelly. After the show, Larry Joe Campbell talked about the experience of doing improv comedy.

Outdoor Concert Village

The 2006 Spring Concert included an Outdoor Concert Village as part of the Virgin College Mega Tour. The Village included an Emerging Artist Stage where up and coming bands performed. Students competed to win iPod Nanos, T-shirts, and received many freebies. Students Emily Patton and Sarah Hughes were selected to compete to win a car. To win the car, one had to throw a football 30 yards through the car's window. Neither of the students won, but fun was had by all.

Spring Concert: Yellowcard and Mae

The Virgin College Mega Tour brought Lycoming College its largest concert to date. Nearly a thousand students and members of the community waited outside for over an hour before the concert. The opening act, Mae, performed many songs from their recent album, The Everglow. Yellowcard, the concert headliner, performed a high energy set. New songs, older songs, and their chart topper, Ocean Avenue, pleased the crowd. The concert was held in the new Rec Center on April 8, 2006.

Second Annual Relay For Life

Lycoming College held its Second Annual Relay for Life, beginning at 6:00 pm on Friday, March 10th. At 8:00 pm, the Survivor Ceremony was held. Heather Nelson, cancer survivor and Lycoming senior, began the ceremony by telling the story of her battle with cancer. The Luminary Ceremony was held at 9:00pm. The names of survivors and victims honored with luminaries were read as Black Tie Affair performed.

Mary L. Welch Theatre Presents: “Anything Goes”

A grand musical, “Anything Goes,” held on October 11-15, 2005 and directed by Jerry Allen, kicked off an exciting year in the theatre. With tap dancing hoodlums, lonesome lovers, and hilarious physical comedy, the audiences each night shared two things in common: smiles and laughter. The cast surprised the theatre goers with amazing musical talent and enticing visual entertainment. With a cool set, all were drawn into the story of love and hope. Some hits included: “Blow, Gabriel, Blow” and “Bon Voyage.” Songs such as “Public Enemy Number One” actually made the criminals seem like our friends!

Right: The entire cast sings “Bon Voyage” with the traditional confetti and party favors that spiced up an already amazing set.

“House of Blue Leaves”

From November 15-19, 2005, the intriguing dark comedy, “House of Blue Leaves,” touched minds and hearts as audiences explored peoples’ obsessions with stardom. Guest Director Mary Ethel Schmidt challenged the actors in these complex roles. The final product? Five nights of solid performances by cast and crew.

Above: Commanding attention are Sarah Painter, Arielle Blanton, Tom Courtney and Krista Storm. The set was a dark city apartment that smelled of lost dreams and big hopes.

Win Number 250 For Coach "G"

In 1972, a wide-eyed, fresh faced coach took over the reigns of the Lycoming College football program. Frank Girardi, an assistant under Coach Whitehill for the previous three seasons, assumed a squad that had gone 14-34 since its last winning campaign in 1965. Coach Girardi took to the sidelines determined to turn around the direction of the program. Five games and five losses into the season, the excitement that lit in the eyes of the Warriors' mentor had faded to an inconsistent glimmer and left the coach wondering if that first win would ever come. That first victory showed up the following week and it did so in story-book college football fashion as 40-mile rival Susquehanna University visited Williamsport.

Fast-forward to November 12, 2005, a little more than 33 years from that fateful first victory and the final game of the current football season. The script on this day added an extra chapter to the ending everyone in David Person Field had envisioned as the Warriors pulled out a 17-10 overtime victory to make Coach Girardi only the 17th overall and one of five active football coaches at any NCAA level to win 250 career games. With much of his family in attendance, Coach Girardi watched his nine grandchildren let fly 250 blue and gold balloons to commemorate the occasion. He left the field in grand style as his players carried their beloved coach atop their shoulders.

A Look Back at Lycoming College Organizations

No, it's not the old Lycourier staff but this is the editorial staff of the Dickinson Union circa 1902. Ok, your photo op is done, now get back to printing that paper!

Hey guys, can you pretend to be happy? After all, you are members of the Glee Club in 1912! How about a smile for the camera?

Another group that existed during the time of Williamsport-Dickinson Seminary was the Ministerial Club. Obviously, this group died out when the seminary became Lycoming College, but look at these faces! We cannot forget these "soon-to-be holy" men of 1913.

As noted in the photograph above, Beta Epsilon Phi is enjoying their Campus Day in 1900. The members are taking a break from a competition in their expression class. I wonder what they are trying to express in this photo?

These handsome young men are part of the Cadet Corps at Williamsport-Dickinson Seminary in 1892. Ready, aim, FIRE! Way to defend the seminary, men!

These ladies are part of Cupid's Darts, a theatrical group during the time of Williamsport-Dickinson Seminary. You look absolutely angelic, ladies!

Future geologists pose for a moment with their wise professor prior to embarking on a geological expedition in 1897 at Bald Eagle Mountain. Expeditions to Bald Eagle Mountain were held frequently in the late 1880s and early 1900s.

United Campus Ministry

United Campus Ministry is one of the most active organizations on campus. Every Thursday night, 4F's is held in Honors Hall. Friends, Faith, Fun, and Food draws nearly 50 students every week. In addition, UCM holds additional events, such as movie nights and tie-dying, every other weekend for all members of the Lyco community. Community service is also a large part of UCM. Students participate in the 30 Hour Famine, Relay for Life, and volunteer at the Ronald McDonald House. UCM consists of over 20 Peer Ministers.

The National Broadcasting Society oversees all communications-based organizations on Lycoming's campus. All majors are welcome to join, not just communication majors. The Comm Prom this year was a huge success.

Academic Organizations:

To help students with their social and academic needs, groups were invented to promote the subject matter taught within most majors and to help create a thriving social environment for interested students.

Throughout the years, many groups have dedicated members who assist in creating programs campus wide, raising funds to aid those in the Williamsport community in need, and creating fun and exciting social events to allow breaks from studying and the stress of college life. Flipping through these pages are many snapshot moments of academic groups and their members having a wonderful time on campus and around the world.

Accounting Society

The Accounting Society provides students an organization in which they can communicate with other accounting students, faculty, and alumni to promote a professional social network for accountants of the future.

Pictured top left and bottom right are members of the Accounting Society at their annual picnic during the school year. Pictured center are student and faculty members of the Accounting Society enjoying a game of volleyball.

Association of Mathematically Interested Students (AMIS)

Association of Mathematically Interested Students is a group that pertains not only to its name, but is also for people who are looking to have fun, go bowling, talk about how math makes the world go round. Most importantly, it is a group for people who may be interested in the topic of Math.

Club Franco

Club Franco is a group that enables students and faculty to practice French language and participate in Francophone culture. Some activities include eating French Food, visiting France, and constantly using the French Language.

Spanish Club

Much like Club Frano, the Spanish Club encourages their student members to practice Spanish and to involve themselves in its culture. The Spanish Department has also visited Spain and participated in the Homecoming parade in which the club's float was a bull.

Members of the Spanish Club after a long evening of events, pose for the camera while illegally parking between lines.

English Society

Above: Members of the English Society at the Renaissance Faire. Left: Members pose for the camera at a regular meeting.

The English Society's only true desire is to spread the love of literature and writing on campus. Throughout the year, poets and writers came to express their love and appreciation for literature. The members went to a reading of Edgar Allen Poe and had their yearly Christmas party.

History Club

History Club is open to all students and has been established for the expressed purpose of spreading the love and knowledge of all things historical.

Your Family

Para mi hija Josemar:

Josie Castillo

En estos momentos importantes de tu vida, como lo es la obtención de este título por el cual has luchado, se me hace grato recordar que desde que naciste nos has llenado a todos de grades satisfacciones, pues desde muy pequeña fuiste una niña intranquila, siempre alegre, bailando y saltando, corriendo de un lado para otro, siempre destacándote en los concursos de baile y actuación, obtenías siempre los primeros premios. Cuando comenzastes tus estudios de preparatoria, las maestras decía que tenía dotes artísticos e ingresastes en una academia de baile a tus cinco años, pero fue la Gimnasia Rítmica la que te cautivó. Luego en la primaria, por el hecho de haber comentado yo que me gustaría que una hija jugara el Tennis, incursastes en ese deporte, que hoy sé lo hicistes para realizar "mi sueño" y no el tuyo, y ese sacrificio tuyo también Dios te lo premió porque te destacastes como una campeona "Mi Campeona" que aunque nunca te lo dije, hoy te doy gracias mi Reina, por haber hecho ese sacrificio sin que yo lo supiera.

Durante tus estudios de bachillerato, continuastes siendo mi orgullo, pues eras de las mejores estudiantes, jamás tuve que llamarte la atención por tus estudios ni tus obligaciones, pues las cumplías al pie de la letra. Que bendición eres hijita.

Siempre te has destacado por obtener lo que te propones, a través de esa fuerza interna que te caracteriza, no desviándote nunca de tus ideales, y hoy por hoy todo tu empeño se ha visto coronado de grandes éxitos al querer y aspirar llegar a ser un profesional exitoso como lo fue padre, que desde cielo te bendice.

Hace poco anos atrás me comentastes, "Algún día seré la Presidenta de una Industria Petrolera", y entonces te dije que para ello tenias que aprender Ingles. De allí que Dios te puso en el camino y gracias a un Intercambio, pudistes viajar a Estado Unidos para estudiar lo que querías, y hoy con muchas experiencias vividas lejos de los tuyos, con momentos de alegría y de tristezas, estas nuevamente culminando una etapa mas, y comenzando otra, porque así eres tu, incansable.

Quisiera recordarte en este día, hija, que no obstante todos esos logros, hay algo mas importante que resaltar de ti, que lo es la excelente calidad humana que tienes. Dios sin duda alguna te colmo de virtudes que están a la vista de todos los que te conocemos. Eres autentica, transparente, de bellos sentimientos, transmites alegría y ganas de vivir a todos los que te rodean. Buena compañera, buena amiga, excelente hija.

Al hacerme portavoz de tus hermanos, de tu papa, tus tíos, primos y amigos, que siempre han estado al tanto de tus logros y deseándote lo mejor, tengo que decirte, que todos te deseamos lo mejor, que nunca cambies tu forma de ser, porque eso es una bendición, y que esa Energía Divida que emanas, nos lleva a concluir que realmente "ERES UN REGALO DE DIOS", que vino a enseñarnos a valorar las cosas buenas que tiene la vida y que hay que proponerse para lograr nuestras metas, viviendo día a día con alegría y entusiasmo, como lo haces tu, y por eso estamos seguros que este escalón que estas subiendo y que continuaras haciéndolo, con la bendición de Dios, se vera coronado con el EXITO en tu vida.

QUE DIOS TE BENDIGA!

TU MAMA.

*Each of us must climb our separate mountain
To reach at last our own extended view.
We can be no more than what we are,
Yet that is quite enough for us to do.*

*The world is far too great for comprehension,
And so we only know what we can know.
But given the abilities we are given,
That's still a long and, sometimes, weary way to go.*

*Yet on the way, how beautiful the moments!
How good it feels to have some skill or art!
How wonderful to pause in awestruck wonder
At what must fill the unsuspecting heart!*

*And so Dad and I are proud of you!
For all you've learned, and all you've tried to learn.
Knowledge brings the deepest satisfaction,
Not least because it's something that you earn.*

Lycoming College was your choice
You entered stubborn mode
So off to Williamsport we went
Route 80 was the road.

You met some girls from other states
And other countries, too
Became good friends and lived in Rich
In a suite all yellow and blue.

You studied hard and earned great grades
Many honors were bestowed
At times you even worked two jobs
Which added to the load.

You volunteered for many things
Your favorite one was MOPS
Your caring ways and loving heart
Just never seem to stop.

These are just a very few
Of all the things you do
That make me say in every way
I am so proud of you!!!

Nancy, nothing but excitement and thrilling thoughts of the future filled our minds when you were born. We watched you grow from a cute little girl into the beautiful and bright young woman that you are today.

We remember your first day at orientation at Lycoming College and saw a mix of excitement, uncertainty and a little anxiety on your face. You had big plans as to what you were going to do, but had to get started first and that was the hard part.

We hope our support and encouragement has helped you during your years at Lycoming College. We have watched your progress as you have become more independent, assertive and ready for what life holds for you in the future.

Your kind and unselfish ways are truly a rare characteristic you possess. You are always giving of yourself to others and we are so grateful that you are our daughter.

Now you are graduating and we are both so proud of you and delight in celebrating your hard work, determination and success. It has been our privilege to be part of your journey to higher education

With your college career entering your world of memories, treasure what you've learned at Lycor; the professors and deans who guided you, the friends you've made, challenges you faced, and the experiences that brought you to

I am proud of all that you accomplished over these years- endurance in studies, the MACS, water

you have for your educators.

As you pass through the Gates of Sykes, remember, life is a continuing journey of knowledge. Make a

Academic Honor Societies

Through the journey along the four years at Lycoming, high academic achievement is sometimes recognized through induction into one or more academic honor societies.

This achievement, along with others, is celebrated on that one day in May, by graduating seniors walking through the gates and looking onto the crowd of family and friends.

It is a day that no one ever forgets...
